The women's international title went to Miss Gladys Robinson, of

New York Skater.

Star in Title Meet

McWhorter set a new world's amateur record in winning the three-mile event to-day in 8 minutes and 45 secends. This was two-fifths of a second faster than the former record, made by John Nillson at Montreal in 1895.

Moore clinched the title by winning the half-mile senior race. William Steinmetz and Charles Gorman were Steinmetz and Charles Gorman were disqualified for fouling McWhorter and Jewstraw. McWhorter, Russell Wheeler and E. Stephenson skated it over for second and third places.

A "strike" was declared by some of the skaters just before the three-mile event, but it was called off before the record-breaking race began. The skaters were dissatisfied with a decisio, in the senior half-mile race, in which Charles Gorman, of St. John, N. B., and William Steinmetz, of Chicago, were disqualified for fouling.

Only five men at first lined up for the three-mile event, but the others soon joined them, and the event was decided by electric light owing to the late hour.

At the close of deliberations by the selegates to the annual meeting of the infernational Skating Union of Amèrea, Allan I. Blanchard, the newly lected president, announced that the complications arising over the holding the so-called national championships in Newburgh on New Year's Day and lating them again at Saranac Lake ecentry, had been officially adjusted. It is that the Newburgh meet, instead of the time, was in reality meet the socond of the first half, Lindquist succeeded in landing a splendid shot for Sweden.

From a free kick, taken by Darby, the Gibraltanians increased their lend to 3 to 1 shortly after change of ends. Thereafter, the game took on an entirely different aspect, and goals for the Swedes thereupon pulled themselves together, completely turned the tablea and wound up with a decisive victory, by the score of 6 goals to 3.
